DESIGN EXPERIENCE

The New York Times
June 2019 — Aug 2019
Product Design Intern

Skyscraper Game

- Proposed, led, and launched a new interactive game called Skyscraper during NYT's Maker week. Game was live for a two-week mobile play testing. I designed all 3D/2D assets, user experience, and front-end design for the game, working closely with engineers.

NYT App

- Designed a behavior for content refresh and shipped visual indicators to fetch new data with varying levels of depending on the user's internet connection. Animated a branded splash screen for IOS.
- Compiled a comparative audit for the NYT app and used the research to redesign the Opinions section on the homescreens.
- Shipped "For You" on Android by partnering closely with developers and ensuring visual quality assurance. Used software such as Jira and Figma to make tickets and communicate with engineers.
- Designed a set of signal patterns to encourage readers to return to the "For You" tab by leveraging design systems and programming methods.
- Strategize methods where the Product Design Department could implement accessibility standards into their process.

SYPartners

June 2018 — Aug 2018
Design Intern

- Designed business development materials for Uniqlo's 2nd heir, Koji Yanai, strategizing ways to leverage the Paralympics of Tokyo 2020.
- Illustrated and visualized unconscious bias workshops for Nike and Virgin Voyages, and strategized higher level customer service philosophies.

Korea Bojagi Forum

June 2016 — Sept 2016
Design Intern
Sept 2016 — Sept 2017
Freelance Designer

- Produced Bojagi and Beyond's brand identity, poster, and exhibition for its triennial exhibition in Seoul, Korea.
- Designed the brochure, catalog, and poster for Bojagi and Beyond's participation in the 23rd European Patchwork Meeting.
